

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 2

HUMAN EVENTS
30 April 1983

Capital Briefs

★ The United States last week charged two Cuban United Nations "diplomats" with "hostile intelligence activities" and ordered them out of the country. Within the past 10 months, five intelligence agents have been expelled from Cuba's U.N. mission and U.S. officials say that a large proportion of the 43-person staff is engaged in espionage, illegal acquisition of U.S. technology and infiltration of the U.S. Cuban community.